QUARANTINE FOR RABIES IS EXTENDED

Extension of the rabies quarantine area to include Carmel is expected as a result of new cases of the canine disease developing in Monterey. While Carmel has not yet definitely been placed in the quarantine district, the order nevertheless affects this village as the present rules cover Monterey and Pacific Grove and all territory surrounding those towns within four miles of the city limits.

Top of Carmel hill is the boundary of the quarantine area, Dr. R. M. Fortier, county health officer, said.

Carmel dog owners are being advised to leave their pets at home when shopping over the hill. Following are the most important of the regulations now being imposed:

1. All dogs and cats owned by residents within the quarantine area must be kept securely confined on the premises for three months.

2. The animals may be confined on leash or in closed cages or pad-dock.

3. Dogs or cats may not be taken out of the area without permission of health authorities.

4. Dogs and cats in transit through the area must be kept in the vehicle in which they are being transported.

5. Dogs and cats not confined in accordance with the regulations will be taken up and destroyed within 48 hours if not called for by the owner. A satisfactory explanation as to why they were not confined will be demanded.

6. Failure to comply with these regulations will subject violators to prosecution. Any person violating the regulations is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CARMELITES HURT IN MOTOR MISHAPS

Motor accidents involving prominent Carmelites took place recently in the vicinity of Salinas.

James Hopper, internationally known writer and war correspondent, and Mrs. Hopper, both pioneer residents here, were shaken and painfully bruised when their car collided with a passenger bus which assertedly pulled out in the traffic lane directly into their path.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Crichton, and son, likewise suffered injuries when there was a collision between their car and a truck.

Councilmen Vote to Call City Hall Election

Tax Collections In Carmel Exceed Amount Last Year

City tax collections up to December 1, exceed those of last year at the same time by a substantial figure. They were due the first Monday in November and will be delinquent the last Monday in December, which falls on the 31st.

Already collected on the total tax, exclusive of business licenses and delinquencies, is $16,373.22, as against $13,972.07 last year.

Total amount to be collected in general tax is computed for 1934-1935 at $37,005.15, and while a figure on the total sum is not at hand, it is expected to be in the neighborhood of $50,000.

James L. Cockburn Returns From Hawaii

Browned by golf under Hawaiian sun and rested by a sea voyage after the round of teas and dinners he attended, James L. Cockburn was a welcome sight in his old village haunts on his return Wednesday. He crossed on the Mariposa, where fellow-travelers were Roscoe Turner and Floyd Pangborn returning with their plane after their spectacular island flight.

Talking with most of Honolulu's prominent financiers and businessmen, whose old associate he is, Mr. Cockburn found conditions excellent in the Islands, and an optimistic spirit prevailing.

He landed in San Francisco Monday, where he was met by Mrs. Cockburn, who returned with him to Carmel by motor.

INTENTION to call a $31,000 city bond election to finance a new city hall in conjunction with a federal PWA grant of $13,200 for such purpose was passed by the council in regular monthly meeting Wednesday night with Mayor Thoburn and Councilmen Burge, Catlin and Norton voting yes, and Councilman Rowntree voting no. Bonds will be taken by the government to carry 4 per cent interest and will run at least 20 years, although definite data on the term has not yet been received from the authorities.

Authority for calling this bond election was received Tuesday in a letter from Assistant Engineer C. E. Hickok, of the San Francisco PWA office, confirmed later by telephone as to details, following his receipt of a letter from H. F. Orr, council for the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, in Washington, D. C.

The total amount approved by the government is $2200 higher than the $40,000 first asked in order to cover oversights and errors. Eleven thousand two hundred dollars cash grant represents 30 per cent of the estimated cost of labor and materials, and should the project not run that high the saving will be adjusted by cancellation of bonds to that amount.

Associated architects of Carmel, including C. J. Ryland, Guy Koeppe, Sumner Greene and Milton Latham, were responsible for the approved plans of the new building with its ample space for city clerk, city judge, council and jury rooms and fire and police departments. The only site considered is the western end of Devendorf Plaza, and proponents of the project claim that it

Boundaries of Proposed Water District Outlined

ELECTION early next spring is proposed to establish a public utilities district by which Carmel, Monterey and Pacific Grove expect to take over the present water supply system.

As outlined, the district would comprise the following territory:

All that area lying north of Carmel river between the bay shore and the state highway, including Carmel Point, Hatton Fields, the City of Carmel, La Loma Terrace, Carmel Woods; all of Pebble Beach and the Monterey Peninsula Country club; the city of Pacific Grove; the city of Monterey; Presidio of Monterey; and Del Monte precinct.

Population of the proposed district is approximately 20,000 and assessed valuation is estimated at approximately $25,000,000.

The district is designed to provide service to residents of Carmel valley and to residents of East Monterey, should they demand it, while either or both of those areas contiguous to the proposed district, may become part of the district at any time such a step may be desired.

Extent of the proposed district was decided upon after study of maps obtained by City Manager Erwin Dames of Pacific Grove from County Surveyor Howard Cosens and officials of the Monterey County Water Works. Dames reported that he had received the fullest possible cooperation from both county and company officials.

It was suggested that the present Del Monte precinct, with 350 voters, be reduced and a portion combined with Carmel Point in a new precinct, or that a portion of Pebble Beach precinct be so combined, to create a new precinct to include the environs of Carmel.

At present Carmel Point is in Point Lobos precinct and Hatton Fields is in a "shoestring" extension of Pebble Beach precinct, while Del Monte precinct extends from Del Monte school on the east to Carmel

"Mary the Marvelous" Coming to Carmel Monday in School Concert

MARY THE MARVELOUS," is a fitting appellation for the one and only Mary Garden, due to arrive in Carmel for her conversational concert at the Sunset School auditorium, under the management of the Denny-Watrous Gallery next Monday evening, December 10.

Our Mary has some set ideas about most important matters, and can discuss politics, finance, dress or love. Her ideas are generally very sound. When Insull begged her to invest her salary in his corporations she steadfastly refused. She was a strong supporter of Roosevelt from the day of his nomination.

Today she has the old dash and verve; the same animation, the same spark of ceaseless vibration characterizes every physical motion, every expression, every spoken word of this brilliant American singer.

The coming engagement of Mary Garden is creating vast interest in music circles as she will entertain her audience with song and story, telling many interesting things that have happened to her in her active career in opera and concert, friendships for many of the greatest composers, fellow artists, managers and directors. Referring to her long and deep friendship for Debussy, she calls her interesting talks "Debussy Conferences." For her concert tour Miss Garden has engaged the great French pianist-accompanist, Jean Daunsereau, one of France's foremost contemporary pianists.

So great have been the demands for appearances of Miss Garden on the Pacific coast that her western manager, Merle Armitage has eight concerts already arranged between Los Angeles and Seattle.

Dr. Alfred G. Beale Dies At Carmel Home

Dr. Alfred G. Beale, 72, succumbed last week in his Carmel residence to a lingering illness, and while he was a comparative newcomer to the region he had made a great many friends.

A native of Ireland, he trained in medicine there and later practiced in many parts of the British Dominion, finally coming to the United States and California. In the war he developed a technique in plastic surgery whereby he repaired many a disfigured face and crippled limb.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Gladys Beale. In compliance with his desire, there was no funeral service, but the body was taken to Santa Cruz for cremation in charge of Freeman's mortuary.

All Saints Parish Is Pushing Hospital Drive

One of the more painless "drives" of the season is that being conducted by members of All Saints Parish gUILD who are interested in the Shriners hospital for crippled children in San Francisco. They are collecting tinfoil, which is sold to help towards upkeep of the hospital. An appeal is made particularly to Carmel boys and girls to aid in the work of collecting.

The tinfoil is more useful if turned in flat, but is acceptable in any condition. Smokers and candy-bar munchers are invited to save their tinfoil and to leave it at All Saints parish house, whence it will be sent to San Francisco.

Melvin Dorsett was appointed field commissioner of the Carmel troops.

Troop committeemen hereafter will pass on grade advancement of scouts, Rev. Dorsett being in charge for January, Everett Smith for February, Herman Crossman for March, and Otto Bardarson for April.

would enhance the beauty of the plaza through its fine architecture and landscape gardening. Others resent the "Main Street" atmosphere it will create.

Retaining Walls

The council also took action to secure SERA funds for retaining walls on the waterfront cliffs along Scenic drive, Mayor Thoburn being empowered to appoint a committee of two councilmen and five representative citizens to make recommendations at once as to nature of work required.

Decoration of several trees on Ocean avenue with lights during holidays by the Business Association was assisted by a $50 grant from public funds, to be added to $40 left over from last year for the purpose. Various sidewalks are to be improved for public safety and several trees to be removed for access to garages at discretion of Street Commissioner J. Burge upon petition of interested parties.

Two Ordinances

Two ordinances received second and final readings, being the amendment to No. 14 requiring residents to secure permit before dumping rubbish, garbage waste in city streets, and the second, No. 148, turning maintenance of all sewers within city limits over to the district trustees.

It was voted that $75 be added to the fund raised by Monterey and Pacific Grove to assist in the water rate-finding hearing for the peninsula with a view to lower water costs. Eugene Watson asked if tax penalties might not be made lighter or if the city taxes might not be paid in two installments, and the matter will be investigated. The question was raised as to property owners submitting bills for emergency sewer work done privately when unable to reach city authorities when sewage backed into houses from street main, and City Attorney Argyll Campbell advised that an affidavit must accompany such requests for bill payment to receive official action.

Adjournment was then moved until Wednesday evening next week.

New Sign Marks Entrance to Pine Cone on Dolores

"So that the people may know," as Bonfils used to say in Denver, that little iron bracket with the pine cone on the end of it, hanging in the middle of the block on the east side of Dolores between Ocean and Seventh, is The Pine Cone's official sign.

To find The Pine Cone office, for payment of bills, ordering of subscriptions, display ads and job printing (adv't) or as a good place to loaf (after the paper goes to bed Thursday, please) you simply duck in the double doors under the sign.

Boundaries for Water District

Woods on the south and west.

As soon as boundaries of the district are finally approved, councils of the three cities will adopt resolutions asking the supervisors to call an election, at which the proposal to form a public utility district will be submitted to voters within the area affected. A majority vote is required to adopt the plan.

No bond issue is involved in the proposal to form a district. At the same time the district is voted upon, names of five nominees for trustees of the district will be submitted. If elected they will serve without salary, their only compensation being a fee, fixed at $5 per meeting, for their attendance at such sessions of the district board as may become necessary.

After the district is formed negotiations for acquisition of the water system will be undertaken, in order to decide upon a fair price for the physical properties of the company. If a satisfactory price agreement can not be reached, condemnation proceedings may be started.

As soon as the cost of the company's properties is determined, a bond issue will be submitted to the voters. Approval by a two-thirds majority is necessary for passage.

FRENCH PLAYLETS WILL BE GIVEN AT DINNER

At the home of Mrs. Grace Rodgers at Tenth and San Antonio, members of Mme. Jeanne Pirene's French class will dine informally Saturday evening, December 15. During the evening two French playlets will be given, "Oh, Monsieur!" and "Tuons le Coq." Participating will be Marie Gordon, Althea McGaraugh, Molly Gibbons, Marjorie Pegram, Rudy Brenner and Albert Van Houtte. Prospective members of the class will be privileged to attend the performance, and may make arrangements by writing Mme. Pirene, Box 112, Carmel, or calling at her home near Sixth and Lincoln.

Berkeley Woman To Make Address Here

Mrs. Eva Lance of Berkeley, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal diocese of California, will be guest speaker at the December meeting of the Carmel Missionary Society, to be held in All Saints' parish house Tuesday afternoon, December 11, at 2:30. She will tell of the triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church to be held at Atlantic City, and of its plans for missionary work during the next three years.

A luncheon in Mrs. Lance's honor will be given at the parish house preceding the meeting, and all interested are extended an invitation to attend both the luncheon and the program.

During her stay here Mrs. Lance will be the house guest of Mrs. Vera Peck Mills.

BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY

About 40 tables have already been reserved for a bridge party which members of the Monterey Peninsula Opera Association will give this evening at San Carlos Hotel, Monterey. The party has the dual purpose of a social reunion for the musicians and their friends, and to pay off a small deficit remaining from the production, "Yeomen of the Guard."

DANCE AT GALLERY

Carmel's need for a place to dance is supplied by the newly-inaugurated fortnightly dances in the Denny-Watrous Gallery. Every other Thursday night, from 9 to 12, to the music of Allen Knight's jazz orchestra, couples may drop in and dance.

As its only large social function of the year, the Woman's club of Carmel will hold its usual "open house" in the club room at the Girl Scout house on New Year's Day, from 4 o'clock to 6. Families of club members and friends will be invited to attend.

Famous Comedians To Appear At Del Monte

Kolb and Dill, the world famous comedians, supported by a score of artists, a floor show and their own orchestra will appear Wednesday night, December 19 in the Ball Room of Hotel Del Monte, it was announced today.

The two veteran comedians who have just returned from a successful run in the east will appear in an old-fashioned entertainment act filled with laughter, gayety and dance numbers.

In addition to Kolb and Dill, there will be Olga Steck, noted soprano prima donna, The Aeolian Octette, the Ralph Lane Orchestra and a swift floor show with over a dozen Broadway beauties.

The audience will sit around tables, sip beer or cocktails as the show goes on in much the same style as in "The Drunkard." Following the show, dancing will be held in the Ball Room.

Red Cross Campaign Total Reaches $2680

In the annual Red Cross drive for funds, the Carmel chapter had banked $2680 by Wednesday morning and several other substantial contributions were expected. Herman Crossman, prime mover in the work, said that public response to this appeal for donations for local welfare had been very good considering general conditions and other drives under way, and that people had given to the limit of their ability in nearly every case.

Pop Ernest Doelter, Monterey restaurant man, is recuperating after a sojourn at the Community hospital in Carmel.

William Askew, superintendent of Carmel streets, and Mrs. Askew are building a new home on Torres between Second and Third streets.

Musical Art Club In December Session Hears Excellent Program

ABOUT 50 members and guests attended the December meeting, Tuesday evening, of the Musical Art Club, a flourishing two-year-old organization for the fostering of amateur interest in music. In keeping with a policy to provide programs to which members and visiting artists both contribute, musical numbers were offered by Ruth Bingaman Herman, club president, and the Pro Art trio, members of which are Ellen Pell Sayre, pianist, Edwin Francis Hamlin, cellist, both of Santa Cruz, where they are teachers of their respective instruments, and Franklin Young, violinist and head of the music department of Monterey Union High School.

Mrs. Herman, always received with acclaim by the club, played a group of piano numbers which had a special significance in view of the fact that this may be her last appearance before the group. Her husband is Major Herman of the Presidio, and in the peripatetic fashion of army folk, is expecting a transfer soon after the first of the year. Mrs. Herman played brilliantly Cyril Scott's "Lento," a Chopin Barcarolle and the first movement from his B minor sonata; a Viennese waltz by Gaertner, arranged by Friedman; and by request, as an encore, her own "Ballet Orientale" a colorful, highly rhythmic conception.

The trio gave two groups; the first, "Serenade," by Toselli; "Marche Militaire" by Kreisler; "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn. The second group included "Nina" by Pergolesi; "Serenade," Beethoven; and a Kreisler arrangement of the Irish folk melody, "Londonderry Air." A special program feature was a cello solo by Mr. Hamlin, an arrangement of Rachmaninoff's beautiful "In the Silence of the Night," called in the instrumental version, "Romance."

The program was arranged by Leonard Abinante, who introduced the artists. A group of musical "current events" was given by Mrs. Milliecent Sears, as part of the club's endeavor to keep abreast with important happenings in the world of music.

The meeting was held, as are all the meetings, in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Van Ess, in the Monterey Peninsula Country Club. A social hour, with refreshments, followed the program.

CANINES WIN HONORS AT LOS ANGELES SHOW

Carmel's blue-blooded canine population was well represented in the dog show held recently at the Ambassador in Los Angeles. Returning early this week bedecked with ribbons were entries of Miss Marion Kingsland, Mrs. J. Biddle Dorcy, Mrs. Edwin F. Kehr, Miss Chesebrough and Miss Shannon.

Pride of the Del Monte Kennels is Miss Kingsland's Welsh terrier Ch. Joe Cinderkin, who went best of breed in the southern show. Miss Kingsland also entered French poodle puppies, of the standard large size, which were winners in their classes.

Reserve winners ribbon was awarded to the Kells' Sealyham female, Baycrest Baronet. Kerry blue terriers are the fancy of Miss Chesebrough and Miss Shannon of Valley Field Kennels, and their entries did well in their respective classes, as did the Cairn terrier shown by Mrs. Dorcy.

ATTEND INSTITUTE

Motoring to San Luis Obispo Monday to attend the coastal counties' Teachers' Institute were Miss Ruth D. Radcliff, Miss Gertrude Rendtorff, Miss Kathleen Lorentzen and Miss Ruth Blanchard, all of whom returned to their Carmel homes for Thanksgiving.

Finney Motor Concern In New Headquarters

The Finney Motor Company, Monterey Peninsula sales and service headquarters for Oldsmobile and General Motors trucks, is now in its new location on Fremont street, Monterey.

The attractive chalk rock building has been completely remodeled with attractive offices and an unusually effective show room. New gasoline pumps have been installed, and the back shop has been done over to provide greater light and more room for workers. A special room for duco has been built.

Willard batteries, tires, gas, oil and all standard automotive service will be maintained, and special departments for body, fender, and painting will be maintained.

According to Finney the new 1935 Oldsmobile cars are expected to be here for demonstration before Christmas, and local deliveries will start some time around the first of the year.

Hostess Department Is New Feature At Ewigs

A new department in keeping with the holiday season has just been established at Ewig's grocery. The special shelves will be loaded with merchandise suited to the title "Hostess Department" and will include a very extensive selection of hoers d'ouves, caviar, stuffed olives, of many varieties, mixed nuts, imported specialties, truffles, fish pastes, and many other varieties of domestic and imported holiday goodies.

In conjunction with the "Hostess Department" will be an even larger assortment of wines, cordials, and liquors, and liquors, priced for every purse and purpose.

In many other departments too, Ewig has increased his varieties of stocks in anticipation of unusually heavy holiday trade.

P.-T. A. To Assist SERA Art Project By Donating Food Sale Proceeds

IF recent plans of the Carmel P.-T. A. develop successfully, Sunset school will also reap benefit from the local SERA art project. Recognizing the unusual opportunity for the school to improve its equipment with federal help, the board of trustees and the P.-T. A. some weeks ago voted a total of $40 from their respective funds toward materials for an art project, and sketched a tentative program.

News that the government required a minimum appropriation of $150 from sponsoring groups caused this program to be suspended. Meanwhile the P.-T. A., considering how best to raise the required balance, decided to devote the proceeds of its December food sale to the school art project. Thus, on Saturday, December 15, at Carmel garage, members of the community will have an opportunity to stock their pantries to their own delectation and the profit of all.

Enlarged Program

If the undertaking measures up to the happy tradition of P.-T. A. enterprises, the greater part of the amount required by the government will be made up, and the project committee can proceed with a new and enlarged program. The delicate studies of wild flowers in movable panels, bespoken from Miss Josephine Culbertson, and the two easel paintings requested under the first plan, will be retained, while many useful as well as beautiful additions to the room equipment become new possibilities. Under the Art Project, craftsmen as well as artists are eligible helpers. Practical but unsightly sinks may disappear behind screens, which will serve at the same time as a background for student exhibits. Flower arrangements will be made more mobile and beautiful if the metal workers have their way, and build stands and brackets for them.

The primary rooms may have and-irons for their fireplaces at last, and some Carmel craftsman may be commissioned by Washington to build a bird bath at some strategic point where young Carmel may see how linnets take their morning showers.

Since no part of the project is possible unless the minimum of $150 towards materials is met by the sponsoring groups, realization of this program for the school is a final responsibility of the community, which will determine by measure where-with it supports the P.-T. A. sale, whether Sunset school will have its share in this SERA project.

Suggestions and help will be welcomed by those working as a committee on the undertaking—the school trustees, Miss Clara Kellogg and Mrs. Arthur Shand of the P.-T. A., and Mrs. Nellie Montague, curator of the Art Association Gallery.

Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie Gordon and their family came from Los Angeles to Pine Inn for Thanksgiving and the week-end.

Miss Katharine Cooke spent Thanksgiving in Los Gatos with her mother, Grace MacGowan Cooke, and her aunt Alice MacGowan.

CLEAN SHIRTS SCARCE IN '49

Men of an earlier San Francisco day probably had a greater appreciation of the work of the laundress than modern men do, if the stories of historians are to be believed. According to them, the signal that announced the coming of a ship into a harbor, during the hectic days of the gold rush, was the signal for the men of the town to rush to the ship, thrilled at the prospect of retrieving their freshly laundered shirts and linen which had been sent out on the ship to be laundered several months before.

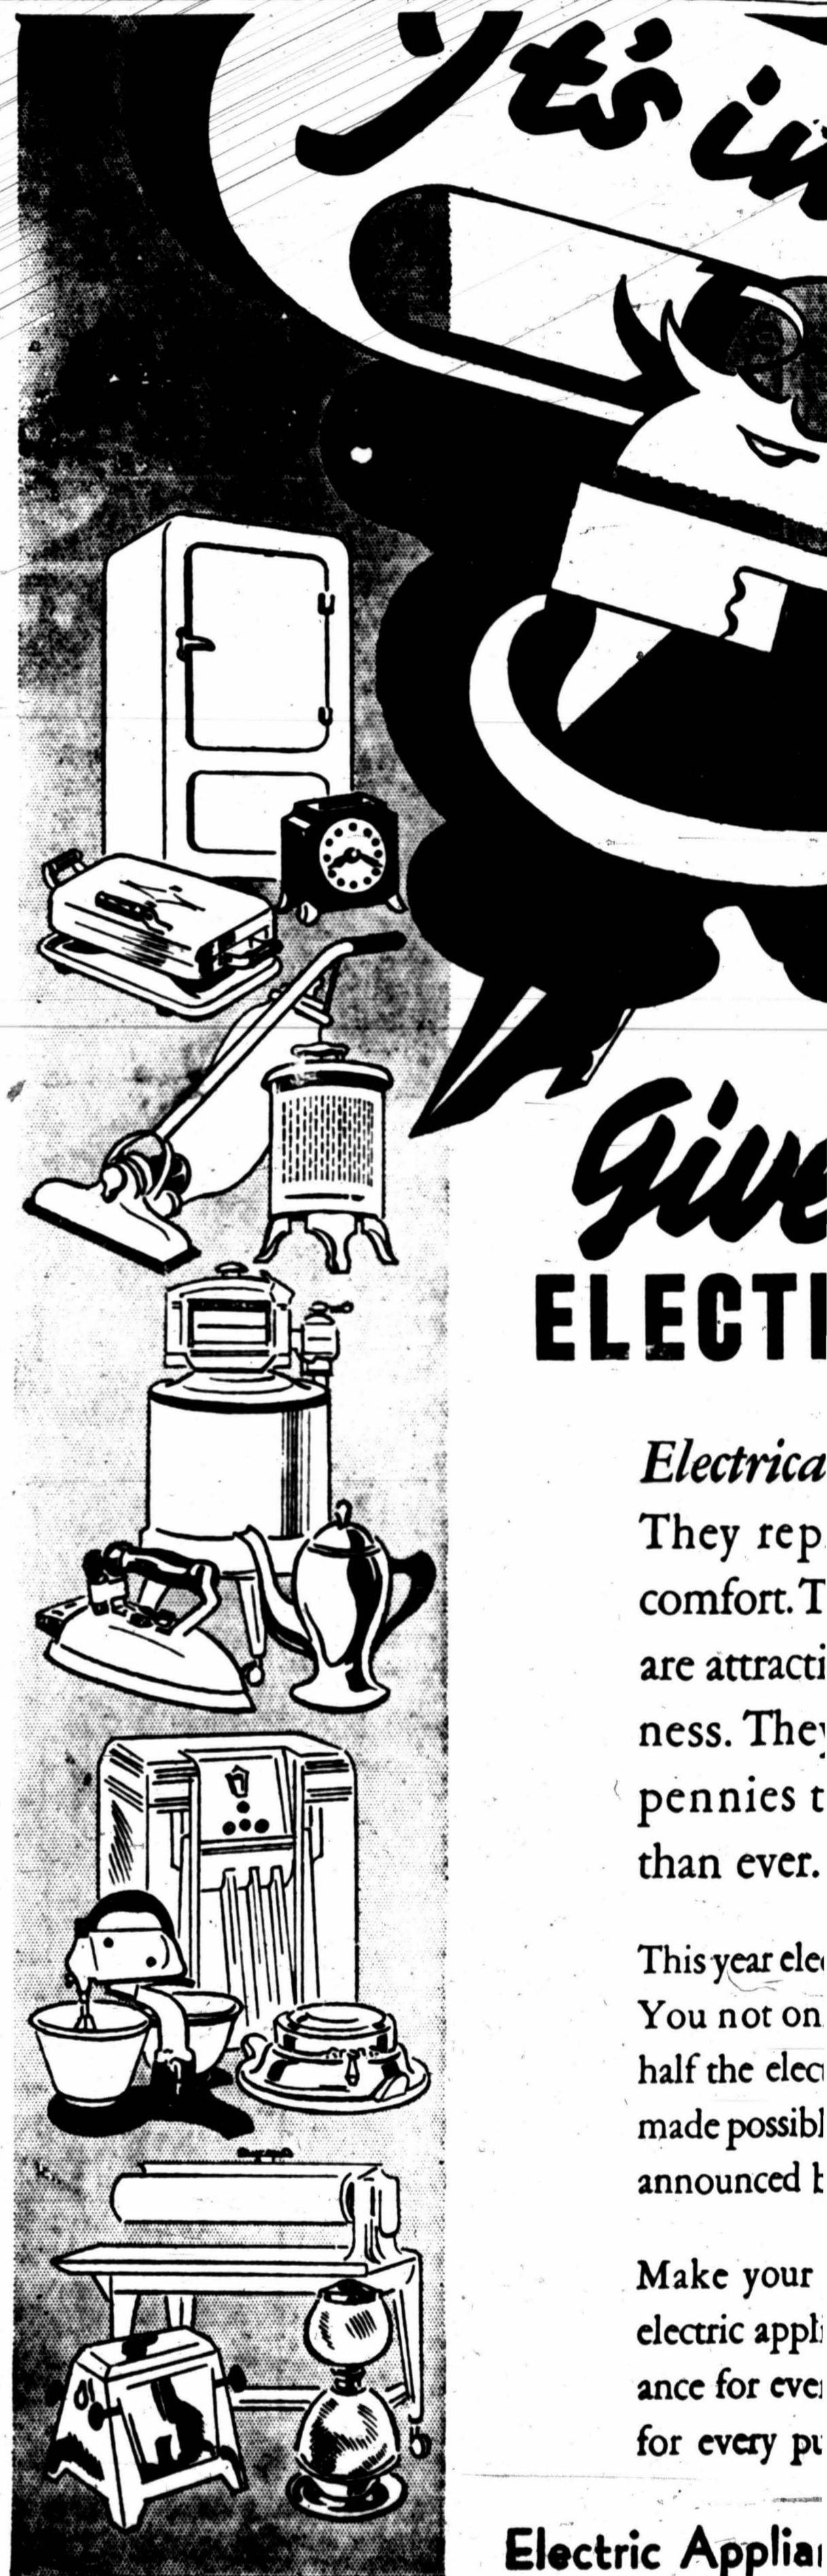

No man could possibly have been more thrilled at the prospect of clean shirts than a modern woman is at receiving for Christmas an electric washing machine to help her keep the shirts clean.

Why not give that boy of yours a radio for Christmas?

A radio set to sit in his own room would prove a most cherished possession. Regarded by the child as entertaining, he does not realize that his parents consider the radio as an important aid in the development of musical education.

The tendency to include a radio as a part of the furnishings of the child's room is growing among par-

ANSWERS TO GIFT PROBLEMS

WITH the stir and bustle of Christmas in the air again, and with shops presenting their most alluring displays, Christmas lists, with their attendant worries and puzzles, again assume national prominence. Although shops and budget may seem to conspire to befuddle and confuse the shopper, there is one very easy solution to the Christmas gift problem.

This year, more than ever, shops are showing new and practical electric appliances in an array of stunning new designs, that will solve every gift problem. There are electrical gifts to suit every purse and every person. Practical and serviceable long after Christmas is past, electric appliances will be appreciated as especially thoughtful gifts.

Appliances that are a necessity in the home, and appliances that may be classed as a luxury, and add the gracious, little touches to life, are both to be found in endless numbers.

For instance, has mother a washing machine, ironer, vacuum cleaner, mixer, electric floor polisher, sewing machine, dishwasher, percolator set and waffle iron? Then she would probably thrill to one of the beautiful new electric buffet servers, that keep a number of foods warm.

Electrical gifts will please father and brother as well. A clock, lamp, a radio or portable heater for his room or den—or perhaps the sort of thing that will tickle him most will be an electric cigarette lighter, a humidifier, a razor, a drink mixer, or a fruit juice extractor. If brother is younger, there are many entertaining electrical toys that are constructively educational as well.

For sister there are numbers of gifts that would be welcome surprises. An electric boudoir clock, a hair drier, a glove drier, a miniature washing machine for dainty underthings, a waffle iron, grill or percolator, if she is away at school, are sure to be welcomed.

Electrical gifts will contribute greatly to the comfort of older people. Radios, lamps that give adequate light to make reading easy, heating pads for cold weather and sun lamps are suggestions for gifts that will be enjoyed.

There are numbers of small gadgets which are almost amusing, so unusual are the tasks that they perform, but which for this very reason will please those who do not like to give gifts only for their practicality.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT

GEORGE C. WARREN, veteran dramatic critic of the San Francisco Chronicle, was in town for the premiere of Flavin's "Sunday." Trained in all branches of newspaper writing and now for years following his favorite bent, he is far broader than the usual critic who wise-cracks in his own narrow sphere, and thereby he commands far-flung recognition as one knowing not only the stage and its back-grounds, but also drama as a student knows it. Naturally he enjoys the warm personal friendship of scores of the stage's foremost names.

A man of smallish stature and mild manners, he readily reminisced of a career that extended across the country, and of his connection with San Francisco journalism that has lasted for years. Although not young, he is at his desk by six o'clock every morning and diligently keeps his work two days ahead of publication.

Carmel finds him no stranger. Many times he has been here, and one of the last times was to review Flavin's "Amaco," produced in August of last year by Edward Kuster. A constructive critic toward sincere amateur effort, he sees in such productions much that is of solid benefit in improving public taste for dramatic fare generally, and like so many other authorities he feels that during the recent lean professional years the amateurs have done much toward keeping interest in the stage alive.

While here he was a guest at the Pine Inn, and after the play he was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Miller for the newspaper fraternity, and then by Martin Flavin. The latter was most interested in finding out his detailed reactions regarding this provocative drama of depressed modern times, and while Warren in general felt that the characters were clearly and fully drawn, he felt that the ending of the play needed an additional element to make it a truly great interpretation of the day.

—Christmas Edition of The Pine Cone Next Week—Mail to Friends for a Christmas Greeting.

Birthdays of Mrs. Vera Peck Millis and Miss Virginia Wheeler were celebrated with a dinner party given Friday evening at Normandie Inn by the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wheeler. Present were Miss Rachel Hiller, Miss Nina Hiller, Betty and Billy Wheeler, Martha, Jane and Anne Millis, and the honorees. The Wheelers were here for the holiday week-end from Palo Alto.

Mrs. Marcella S. Moore came down to her home "Andora" at First and Dolores streets, over Thanksgiving again this year, following long custom, and was hostess to her daughters and sons-in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sims, and Mr. and Mrs. William Donaldson and their several young sons and daughters.

A group of Berkeley and Oakland folk holidaying in Carmel were tea guests of Mrs. Clark Brockway and Mrs. Sarah Trombaux Friday following Thanksgiving. Included were their house guest, Miss Clara B. Strain, of Berkeley; Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Tolfree of Oakland, Miss Ethel O'Connor, Miss Carrie Comings, Mrs. B. Marshall, all of the Claremont hotel, Berkeley, and Mrs. Marie Jones of Oakland.

Other Italian Hill Towns Topic Of Talk Before Woman's Club

BECAUSE so many of the club members had themselves visited the places of which she spoke, the talk by Miss Sarah Redington of Santa Barbara on "The Other Italian Hill Towns" was of particular interest at the Woman's club Monday afternoon. From her first trip in 1903 down to her last visit a few years ago, Miss Redington has returned at intervals to this lovely country, marking the changes which have taken place, and the greater ease with which they may be reached by modern means of travel.

In the old days of jerk-water trains and horse-drawn vehicles, the traveler had little choice; one visited one pair or the other of the four famous tourist-stops; Perugia, Assisi, Orvieto and Siena. There were other enticing villages off the beaten paths, but unless one had the enterprising spirit and courage of the pioneer, they were considered inaccessible, and accommodations were of doubtful quality.

Unbeaten Paths

However, in company with her fellow-traveler, "f. t.", in whom the club women recognized Miss Frances Taylor of Carmel, Miss Redington began at an early period the process of "collecting" little-known hill-towns and entertaining experiences. By train and in the tiny carriages which alone could negotiate the steep and difficult roads, and the drivers of which sat practically in the passengers' laps, she gained a familiarity with the terrain which automobile tourists often lose, she believes. They stopped at out-of-the-way inns, found miracles of Italian cookery in unexpected places, and learned that Baedeker is not always infallible in his estimate of available accommodations.

Pointed with references to the historic personages who have made famous the names of these towns, with descriptions of the natural beauties of the surrounding country, the historic and artistic treasures of the towns, and aptly illustrated with quotations from literature which they have enriched, Miss Redington's talk was highly entertaining and informative.

Building Report

In the short business meeting which preceded the program, Mrs. H. S. Nye, club president, announced that the committee considering the possibility of obtaining a club building has held several meetings and will hold others before submitting a report. Serving with Mrs. Nye on the committee are Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Abernethy and Mrs. Wolff. At the close of the afternoon the usual informal tea hour was enjoyed before the open fire in the club room at the Girl Scout house.

PLAN "CHEAP JACK" SALE

A "cheap jack" auction sale will be held at All Saints' Parish house on Monte Verde on Friday, December 14, at 2 o'clock. Tea will be served.

Census Bureau Checks Carmel Valley Farms

Census of Carmel Valley farmers, their land and products will be made by the United States Bureau of Census on January 2, 1935.

"All farmers and ranchers," reads the bulletin, "will be called upon to answer questions pertaining to farm tenure; farm acreage; farm value; acreage and yield of each of the principal field crops and vegetables; number of trees and the yield of principal fruits and nuts; number and value of livestock; poultry and eggs; and farm population."

It is asked that all be prepared to answer these questions. To assist in this the director of census, in Washington, D. C., will send a sample copy of the census blank upon application.

GOOD FOR A WHOLE YEAR

DON'T let a single day go by without getting your share of this bargain value in electricity. Thousands of our customers throughout Northern California are doing it. Make sure you, too, will get a full year's share of EXTRA Electricity at HALF COST.

Fill your empty light sockets with new lamp bulbs.

Put idle electric appliances to work again.

Keep broom and dustpan in the closet and use the vacuum cleaner for all your sweeping and cleaning.

Lay aside the washboard and let the electric washer do your washing for only a few pennies a week.

That's one way 1/2

Off EXTRA Electricity can serve you. By using the appliances you now have a little more during the coming year than last year.

And, of course, every new appliance you buy that means the use of an added amount of electricity each month from now on may be operated at half regular cost. Make the most of it.

See how cheap this EXTRA Electricity really is. For example: You can have electric refrigeration for only 80¢ a month. You can have automatic electrically heated water for $1.80 a month and an electric range can operate for as little as $2.50 a month. 1/2 Off on EXTRA Electricity is a real bargain. AFTER 1936—WHAT?

In European countries it is nothing to have 12 to 20 political parties represented in the parliaments; or such was the case at least, before dictatorships wiped out all opposition. In the United States, heterogeneous elements have been bound together under two party labels; constituting, between them, the party in power and the opposition.

Within the next few years we are likely to see considerable shifting and coalescing of elements within the two old parties. More imminent than ever before is the rise of a significant third party. When the La Follettes in Wisconsin definitely departed from the ranks of the Republicans and launched their campaign under the "Progressive" banner, they laid the groundwork for what may become a genuine party of liberalism; the party for the support of which the two older parties may well angle earnestly in years to come.

Will the Democratic party tend to become more and more conservative, as some political prophets believe? It is not unlikely. History has shown that power and responsibility are strong compulsions toward conservatism. Public utilities and other monied interests who have contributed liberally toward Republican war-chests in years past, have in 1934 showed a tendency to place their money and their backing behind the Democracy. This is partly the craving to "back a winner," partly a hope to be able to control party politics in years to come.

Arch-conservatives of house and senate went down before the Democratic landslide this fall. Republicans left in the seats of the mighty are mostly insurgents, leading to the belief that even this year the Democratic party may find itself at the "right" with opposition coming from Republicans on the "left."

There are plenty of "sons of the wild jackass" left in the Democratic ranks, however. They may find themselves more at home with the opposition than in their own party. This year Progressives and Republicans are alike too small to provide effective opposition; but the Democratic party may find itself reft in twain over important issues.

Personal popularity of Franklin D. Roosevelt is the most cohesive element in his party at present. It will undoubtedly carry him to safe victory in 1936. After that—what?

PRIDE AND MARTYRDOM

Consider the turkey you fattened for your Thanksgiving dinner. How he swelled and puffed himself and strutted in impressive dignity—inflated with pride in his breadth and depth of chest and large hip measurements. And the tragedy of it is that those things constituted his death warrant. The gifts of which he was so proud doomed him to the oven.

Some may see in the gobbler's vanity a striking illustration of the proverbial pride that is followed by a fall. Others, who look at the matter fairly, will see something more. All who recall their Thanksgiving dinner must admit that a well-fattened gobbler has something to be proud of. Nor was his fall, enroute to the table, to be set down as in any way a penalty of pride. In his fall he served mankind. In his death he became a true benefactor of the hungry. His pride in life was not unbecoming and in death he was a martyr to a glorious cause.

Figures show several thousand persons buy The Pine Cone every week. And the remainder of them try to read the paper over someone else's shoulder.

HONEY BEES

*Watching the wind and the good brown earth
 Under the bending tree,
 How long have you waited to banquet thus
 To idyllic satiety?*

*The garden stands curled in the autumn glare,
 The honey of flowers runs low,
 But here is a nectar warm and free,
 Where a wing may be idle or slow.*

*Arrogant bumbles must flash their gold,
 Dine with a proud display,
 Circling a chalice to test its worth,
 Complaining, and veering away.*

*But you and a little brown bee that is I Drink deep of a homely store,
 Watching the wind and the good brown earth
 For the manna that falls at our door.*

BEULAH ALLYNE BELL.
 In "Spinners."

EUCALYPTUS TREES

*Towering against the sky, a stately group,
 Their high green branches beckoned silently.
 Under the spell of those up-reaching arms
 I squared my shoulders all unconsciously;
 With lifted head, turning my face toward heaven
 I breathed a prayer and kept them company.*

—Gazelle Stevens Sharp

FARM WIFE

*The tapping of her rocker sought a pool
 Of honeysuckle shadows spiced and cool;
 Now was the time she loved; a breathing spell
 In which she regulated peas to shell,
 Or bread to set, or other household chores
 To their own province within farmhouse doors.
 The fresh, green beauty of the rolling fields
 Brought comfort to her heart of Autumn yields.
 But if the earth proved stubborn or the heat
 Crisped to a rasping torch the corn and wheat,
 Where hill and valley dipped into the blue
 Was yet another day to start anew.*

CLAIRE AVEN THOMSEN.

PROMISSORY NOTE

*Life, my long-patient creditor,
 Must some time claim his interest fee.
 Will he foreclose and send me up,
 Mortgaged, into eternity?*

—Elinor Lennen

SEMBLANCE

*Little white sail on the edge of the world
 Where the sky communes with the sea
 You beckon out there like a glimmering thought
 That is slipping away from me.*

*Little lost sail, you have disappeared
 Over the rim of the sea,
 A shadowy semblance of thoughts I have lost
 That never came back to me.*

HARRIET MIELS MCKAY.

FROM THE HILLTOP

By PERRY NEWBERRY

Reading Upton Sinclair's syndicated articles about his recent campaign for governor, I get the impression of a kindly, big-hearted gentleman, with a mild but pleasing sense of humor, who would have been miserable had he been elected. Like most serious thinkers, he is not qualified to bump shoulders with an aggressive and selfish world.

First Assistant Postmaster General Howes' detailed statement of a city's needs for house-to-house delivery should settle that problem in Carmel for a long time. Good continuous sidewalks, paved streets and crosswalks, street lights, house numbers, street signs, mail receptacle, and fifty per cent of building lots with houses upon them, occupied, will hold Carmel to a postoffice service for the present. Which is satisfactory to most of us.

On April 9 of this year, a bond election for a city hall gave a decisive "No" to a proposition which was certainly no less attractive than the suggested one of today. Requiring two-thirds of all ballots cast to win, the proposition failed even to get a majority vote.

If the city council believes that locating the building upon Devendorf Park—Block 69—will favor the project to the extent of 100 votes, they should have another think, for even among the proponents of a city hall there are many who are opposed to using our only down-town breathing space for a site.

Where then is there a reasonable excuse for calling a special election to vote for bonding a city hall?

Without wanting to conflict at all with Laura Bride Powers' function of keeping the Monterey Peninsula informed upon its historical dates, I must call attention to the fact that Josh Billings died in Monterey October 14, 1885. As the worst speller in the world, and one of its great humorists, Josh Billings, whose real name was Henry Wheeler Shaw, has a right to be remembered.

With the quail and dove season open, it is well to remind Carmel nimrods that the game sanctuary in which no birds may be killed at any time, includes all of Carmel, Hatton Fields, the Point, and the Highlands. In fact, it goes southward to Mal Paso creek, westward to the Mt. Diablo meridian beyond the Carmel-San Simeon highway, then takes in Pacific Grove, Monterey, Seaside and well northward along Monterey bay. Within the limits of the sanctuary it is illegal to hunt or even to carry firearms.

THE WORLD'S A STAGE

Certain theater interests have proposed that the federal government set aside a million dollars to finance "drama in every hamlet and town," that amount to constitute a revolving fund with intent to use it over and over again to carry the drama to other cities, and so on ad infinitum.

Just what would happen to the fund if the enterprise failed in the first city is not very clear, but there is a suspicion, at least, that it might not revolve. In which event many cities would be deprived of the drama, and Uncle Sam his money.

If every hamlet and town wants its "dramer" it should adopt the Carmel method and not burden Uncle Sam until his back looks like a proscenium arch.

NORMAN ASTLEY AND WIFE INCOMPETENT, SAYS PETITION

Petition for incompetency has been filed in superior court at Salinas asking a guardian be appointed for Mr. and Mrs. Norman Astley of Carmel. Both are now in a sanitarium in San Francisco. The petition was filed by Silas W. Mack.

The estate of Astley, who is 81 years old, consists of a contract for sale of property in Carmel on which $3670 is still unpaid besides money in the bank, securities and household and personal effects. Last September he married his wife's nurse, Nellie Irene, and according to the petition she likewise is incompetent. The matter will be heard by Judge Jorgensen on December 10.

ONE TRAFFIC CASE

Winter calm has settled over the court of City Judge George Wood. Only one case of traffic violation came before him during the week, it being that of Herbert Thage, florist of San Jose canyon. He was cited for having no certificate of registration, no operator's license and is alleged to have ignored a stop sign at San Carlos and Ocean to run his truck into the soldier's monument and ruin a tire. He plead guilty and was fined $5.

URGE SERA PROJECTS

Leaders of the Carmel Business Association met Tuesday evening at the Pine Inn and among other business passed a resolution to urge local SERA projects, both as civic improvement and to keep Carmel workers employed at home instead of scattered over the peninsula as at present. Election of officers for 1935 will take place at the January meeting.

THANKSGIVING IN PIEDMONT

"Sunday" Cast Quits Muttering

"Sunday" is now a thing of the past, and members of the cast who had put in four weeks of intensive rehearsals, which were also fun because the group was made up of such good "trouper," have now returned to private life and are no longer going around muttering to themselves. They foregathered for the last time after the Saturday night show, at the Carmel Highlands home of Martin Flavin, author of the piece, who with the assistance of Mrs. Flavin and their daughter, Miss Flavia, entertained them royally at a buffet supper.

Among those who attended were Major and Mrs. Chester A. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. H. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Byington Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore Waldegrave, Mrs. S. P. Dutton, Mrs. Carol Edwards, Miss Beatrice Holtby, Miss Dorothy Ledyard, Miss Eloise Dornier, Miss Betty Allyn, George McMenamin, Dr. D. T. MacDougal, Tex Raiburn, Evert Sholund, John Nye, and Albert Van Houtte.

POKLENS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Poklen entertained Frank Donley, district manager for Chevrolet Motor Company, and his two daughters, Evelyn and June, over the Thanksgiving weekend. During the visit Mr. Poklen and Mr. Donley went out on the opening day of the wild pigeon season and returned with the limit.

PINE NEEDLES

WHILE Thanksgiving has never been considered one of the traditional wedding-times, and June, not November, is the month of brides, it chanced that four different honeymoon couples found shelter at Highlands Inn over Thanksgiving and the week-end. They were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Michaelis of Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilshim of Hollywood, where Mr. Wilshim is connected with the Fox film organization; Mr. and Mrs. E. Pat Shultz of Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Corsen Jr., of East San Gabriel.

Others enjoying an unusually festive Thanksgiving at Highlands Inn were Mrs. Archie W. Shields of Bellingham, Washington, her son, John, a Stanford student, and Miss Eleanor Luper; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. L. Tydeman and his father, Admiral G. F. Tydeman, former Hollanders now living in San Francisco.

Here from Los Angeles for Thanksgiving and to see the performance of their daughter, Beatrice Holtby, in the Friday evening performance of the Community Players production of "Sunday" were Mr. and Mrs. R. Holtby Myers. On the trip home they were accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. Allen Robertson, who had been staying with Miss Holtby in Carmel for several weeks.

The only December meeting of the Woman's club bridge section will be the Christmas party to be held next Monday afternoon, December 10. There will be special decorations and refreshments in keeping with the season, according to Mrs. Osborn Johnson, section chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brundin of Bakersfield were week-end visitors in Carmel.

A family Thanksgiving party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raine celebrated the visit of Mrs. Raine's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wall, their son, Philip Wall and his two children, Malcolm and Donna, and Leo and Timothy Wall, all of Santa Clara.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl F. Meyer and their daughter, Miss Charlotte, spent the holiday and week-end in Carmel, after which they returned to their home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wurmann spent Thanksgiving Day and the week-end in Berkeley as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Legge, parents of Mrs. Wurmann.

Professor and Mrs. McBain of Stanford and their daughter, Miss Janet, enjoyed the holiday period at Highlands Inn. Also at the Inn from Stanford were Mr. and Mrs. Payson Treat.

After occupying a cottage on Casanova street for the past three months, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark left Carmel Monday, expecting to establish a home in the bay region. Mr. Clark has recently transferred his business headquarters from the southern part of the state. He has joined Mrs. Clark here frequently during her late summer vacation and during rehearsals for "Sunday," in which she played the lead under her professional name, Beatrice Holtby.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hargraves were in San Francisco last week to attend the opera.

Mrs. Fred Bailey was hostess to a party of eight for Thanksgiving dinner at the Bluebird tea room.

Thanksgiving vacation was the cause of considerable going and coming around Forest Hill school. Mrs. Caroline Benson Unander, who has been in Carmel the past few weeks, spent the vacation here with her son, Sigfried Unander, a senior at Stanford and former student at Forest Hill.

Miss Betty Allyn drove to San Francisco to spend Thanksgiving and to attend the Oregon-St. Mary's game. Joan and Jacquelyn Fauntleroy spent their time at Peter Pan Lodge while both Lois Cornwall and Mrs. Ada Patterson visited relatives in Berkeley.

Thanksgiving dinner at the Bluebird Tea room was enjoyed by Mrs. G. R. Slocum, her house guest, Mrs. M. A. Stratton of Palo Alto, Mrs. Anne Ewing and Mrs. Clement Greenberg.

Mrs. George Boke maintained a long-standing Thanksgiving custom by having intimate friends of the family in for Thanksgiving dinner. The guests included her daughter, Marian Todd, Helen Wilson, Charlys Wilson, Winsor Josselyn, and Masters John Todd and Thorne and Peter Kinsey.

To welcome Mrs. Elizabeth Titus, who has recently returned to Carmel to make her home, Mrs. H. S. Nye entertained a group of Mrs. Titus' old friends at a bridge luncheon at her home Wednesday. Other guests besides the honoree were: Mrs. Elizabeth Alcott, Mrs. John Abernethy, Mrs. C. J. Ryland, Mrs. Kent Clark, Mrs. Joseph McCarthy, and Mrs. D. W. Scripture.

After being the guest of Miss Rowena Beans, who is spending a month in Carmel, for the first part of the week, Miss Sarah Redington of Santa Barbara is now visiting with Miss Frances Taylor for about a week, after which she will go to San Mateo. Miss Redington was here to give the Woman's club two entertaining programs this week.

One of the delightful "no-host" parties of Thanksgiving Day was that for which Normandie Inn was the setting, and the participants were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yerxa, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cherrier, all of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Payne, Rear Admiral and Mrs. J. S. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Dickinson.

Celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. John N. Dickinson, Rear Admiral and Mrs. J. S. McKean gave a dinner party at their Carmel Highlands home recently for Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tutt, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Payne.

SECTION HEADS
SELECTED FOR LEGION POST

Carmel American Legion Post No. 512 held its regular monthly business meeting Monday evening at the club house on Dolores at Eighth street. The most important result was the appointment of committee heads by Commander James Regan.

Floyd Mangrum was made head of the Americanization group; Argyll Campbell, legal; Dr. Wesley T. Davidson, child welfare; Mayor James Thoburn, community betterment; Lee Gottfried, house; Major W. H. Landers, conservation, and E. H. Ewig, finance. Byington Ford was put in charge of the subversive commission and Commander M. J. Peterson of the Boy Scout commission.

It was announced that plans were under way to hold a second meeting each month on the third Monday, to be entirely of educational and social nature, with outstanding speakers to be brought in for talks on current subjects.

Captain Pat Hudgens reported that despite the fact Carmel had 26 paid up members who had not yet been issued cards because their credentials needed further study, and who therefore could not be counted as present members, the post stood eighth among the 21 posts of this thirteenth district in membership quota.

Harold Mack, Jr., spoke upon social credit. Mack, by the way, was one of the founders of Paris Post No. 1, when the legion was born in France at the close of the war.

Solons Entertained By Tickles At Highlands

Combining a two-day session of the "progressive group" of the California state senate with holiday jollification, Senator and Mrs. E. H. Tickle entertained a number of solons and their ladies at Highlands Inn. Highlights of the affair were the big Thanksgiving dinner at the Inn, and a barbecue dinner Sunday at the Indian Village near Pebble Beach at which Senator Tickle and Samuel F. B. Morse were joint hosts.

Present were Lieutenant-Governor George J. Hatfield, and the following senators and their wives: Will Sharkey, Contra Costa county; A. L. Pierovich, Amador; Bradford Crittenden, San Joaquin; Harold J. Powers, Modoc; Leonard J. Diffrani, Riverside; James I. Wagy, Bakersfield; Edgar Stow, Santa Barbara; Jerry Sewell, Roseville; and Bert Snyder, Santa Cruz.
